

CULTURAL GUIDE FOR MIGRANT STUDENTS

yes
Young Enterprising Students

- The Dalaman region is known as Turkey's "Turquoise Coast". It is located at the south west part of Turkey.

- There is an International airport (Dalaman Airport-DHM) in the city. It is 5 km to city.

How far are the other cities?

Fethiye 60 km.,
Göcek 25 km.,
Arıgerme 12 km.,
Dalaman'a 20 km.,
Iarmaris 90 km.,
Köyceğiz 30 km.,
Gökova 60 km.,
Muğla merkez 95 km

Minibuses run frequently along the highway connecting the Dalaman Otogarı with the nearby towns of Ortaca and Dalyan, and with farther points such as Köyceğiz and Marmaris to the west, and Göcek and Fethiye to the east

- Dalaman's Otogarı (bus station) is near the center of the town, 6 km (3.7 miles) north of Dalaman.

Here are some annual weather facts

Hot season / summer is in June, July, August and September.

- Most rainfall (rainy season) is seen in January, February, October and November.
- Dalaman has dry periods in April, May, June and July.
- On average, the warmest month is July.
- On average, the coolest month is January.
- January is the wettest month. This month should be avoided if you don't like too much rain.
- June is the driest month.

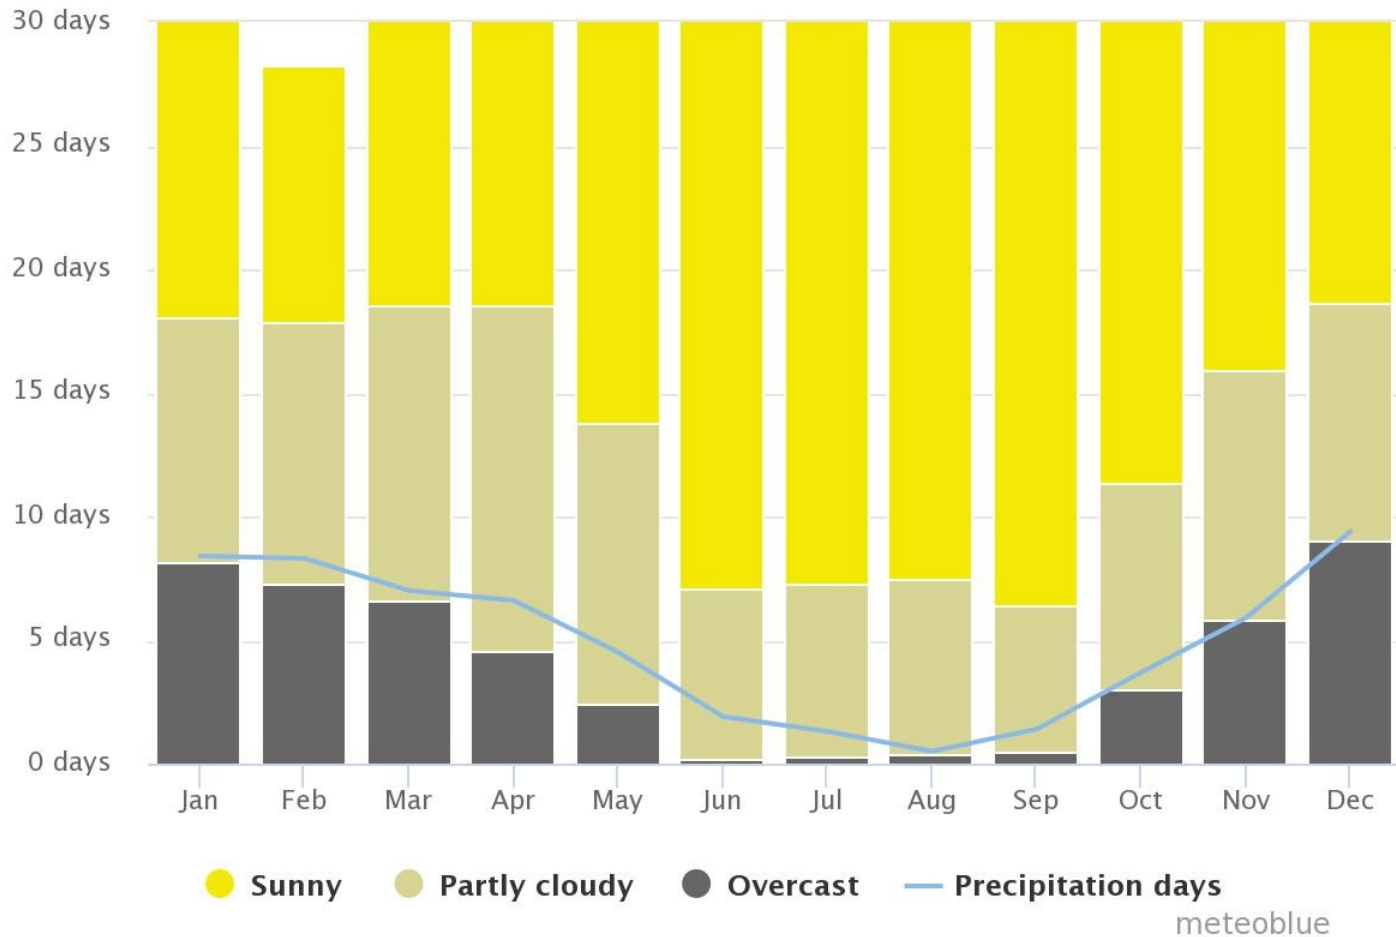

CLIMATE OF DALAMAN

● Precipitation — Mean daily maximum - - Hot days — Mean daily minimum
- - Cold nights — Wind speed

meteoblue

SUNNY DAYS DURING THE YEAR

FOOD AND DRINKS

- Local food is influenced by the superb Ottoman cuisine. Lamb and minced meat are the favourites, combined with vegetables and spices, to create mouth-watering delights like karniyarik (halved aubergines stuffed with minced lamb, pine nuts and dried fruits) and hunkar begendi kofte (meatballs served with a smooth puree of smoked aubergine and cheese). Go to informal restaurants (lokanta) and choose from a variety of dishes, usually listed on a board by the entrance. For something delicious and simple, try lamb adana kebab on pide bread, imambayildi (braised aubergine stuffed with onion, garlic and tomatoes), sahlelep (orchid tea), and followed, of course, by a sweet pastry baklava.

Some Facts

- 37,000 inhabitants live in Dalaman
- There are 33 schools in Dalaman
- There is a Hospital and 12 Health Care Service point in the city
- The Local market of the city is on Thursday

Please call ;112 incase of emergency

112-Emergency Number

Prepared for the migrant students who are trying to adapt to new place, culture and

YES
Young Enterprising Students

Turkey